Grant County Health District and Grant County Board of Health Share an Urgent Message to the Community and Visitors about the Delta Variant and Current COVID-19 Surge.

Grant County, WA – Grant County Health District along with the Grant County Board of Health share a message to the community and visitors about the Delta variant and current surge in COVID-19 cases. GCHD staff will be working with event hosts to ensure they understand these recommendations during a time of surging Delta variant cases and hospitalizations. Each of us have an opportunity and civic duty to do our part in limiting the spread of this highly contagious variant.
